

The James Chase House on the bluff in Oregon City, Oregon. This house was bought by the Chases in about 1888 or 1889. The picture was taken in 1890. The family is pictured, 1, to 5; Nettie, a young man taking the place of Alvin who had drowned in Feb. of that year; brother James Chase and Ada on porch; the; and Augusta in front of porch railing;

The James Chase house in Oregon City, the site of which was the upper entrance to the elevator. This picture was planned by Sarah August